WallBuilders Defend Our Freedoms by Roberta D'Amico

Daily, attacks continue and laws are being passed to restrict our freedom of speech and our worship of God. In response, Rick Green of WallBuilders, an organization dedicated to preserving the forgotten history of America, is coming to speak in Lexington, Massachusetts, on Friday, April 12, 2013, 7:00 – 9:00 pm.

“This is a presentation on the overwhelming influence of Christianity in the birth and establishment of our nation and what we can do in our communities and churches to preserve the hard won freedoms of religion and speech,” says Kris Mineau of the Massachusetts Family Institute. In the face of a strong effort to eliminate all things pertaining to God from our culture, we need to preserve the principles on which our country was founded, those principles that made it great.

Our form of government is of the people, by the people, and for the people; but a people without godly principles cannot run a good government. Crime is rampant, even among people in positions of high power; and at the same time, honesty and integrity are disappearing. In order to keep the freedoms that we have, we must have a moral people. History demonstrates that if a people will not live by God’s laws, they will end up being ruled by tyranny. We see it happening here: don’t say Merry Christmas, schools cannot celebrate Christmas or Easter, you no longer have to swear on the Bible to take an oath, judges cannot have the Ten Commandments in their courtroom, and it gets worse.

Recently, there have been incidents where people have been penalized for talking about God, or carrying a Bible, or wearing a tee shirt with a godly message. In a Florida university a student was suspended for refusing to “stomp on Jesus”, an exercise where the professor told students to stamp on His Name written on paper. Add to that the effort to remove crosses from cemeteries, and even from the Mojave Desert, military funerals, and so on. Now we have a law against what they call “hate speech”, which really means that you are not allowed to disagree with those who want to change the definition of marriage. Soon we will not be allowed to disagree with our leaders.

In spite of the news, people are still not paying attention. Just like Germany in the 1930s, when Christians and Jews were being persecuted, many are either blindly trusting the government to do what is right, or ignoring what is happening as if it will not affect them. To do nothing is to acquiesce to the loss of our freedoms.

We Mourn

You mourn 26 deaths I include the boy who grabbed His mother's guns and said "GOD forget Heaven."
I mourn for the parents Who seek vengeance instead of deliverance. Who lean on 'an eye for an eye' instead of "I'll forgive this guy"

I mourn for a world who views this incident "there's a friend in my family that suggested" Through a "court ordered, Psychologists eyes... That will simply tell them, that this isn't SIN, but a disorder.

I mourn for that psychologist. Yes, I mourn for her I even mourn for her teacher's teacher, sadly if her Teacher would never have taught her, then that Teacher would never have taught her to teach her LIES. Do You See How DECIEVED we are without CHRIST?

I also mourn that additional 35 that die, that we somehow give a blind eye to. Are you confused? I'm gonna explain... You see 26 is such a small portion when We leave the 35 we took out with ABORTION. While he was slaughtering 26 in that Same 15 minute time span we were murdering 35, people. Alphabetically and truthfully speaking If we never X'ed GOD out of our schools We wouldn't be sitting here wondering why.... We mourn
